

Bought at a price

1 Corinthians 6:20 (KJV) For you were bought at a price In Paul's time, masters purchased slaves from other masters, thereby issuing a change in ownership for a slave. Paul reminds the Corinthians that God purchased them from slavery to sin and death through the sacrificial death of Christ. Therefore, they belong to God, not to themselves (1 Cor 6:13; compare Gal 2:20).

God, sent His only begotten Son, down to earth, was crucified, buried and risen from the dead

We that are parents would do anything for our children. Even to the laying down our life to keep them safe.

God purchased us from our sin and death and He has given us a new life to live.

That is what Christ did for us. He became the perfect Lamb that was slain for us, for the remission of our sins.

Galatians 2:20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Now when we are saved we become a part of His crucifixion on the cross, through Jesus Christ.

It is our faith through the Son of God

For faith is the substance of thing hoped for, the evidence of things not unseen. Hebrews 11:1 \(KJV\)

Hebrews 11: 3 (Message) put it this way: "By faith, we see the world called into existence by God's word, what we see created by what we don't see."

Hebrew 11:1-2 (Message) states: The fundamental fact of existence is that this trust in God, this faith, is the firm foundation under everything that makes life worth living. It's our handle on what we can't see. The act of faith is what distinguished our ancestors, set them above the crowd.

"Bought for a price" for we all were slaves to sin and death but through Jesus Christ, now we belong to God, not through what we have done, but Christ in us.

Bought at a price

It is God's plan that we have this new life, ever after. But we must commit ourselves to his calling for Revelation 3:20 (KJV) states: Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

You see we are not seeking God, but God is seeking us. He has taken the initiative to seek us out every one of us, He doesn't want to see anyone left behind, He loved us even in our sinful state, and that He made a way for us to be saved and to dwell with him forever and forever.
